

From the Desk of Executive Director, Shelley Klingerman

On July 7, 2023, 2 years after his tragic death, the legacy of Detective/FBI Task Force Officer Greg Ferency serves as a reminder of the dangers that law enforcement officers face every day in the pursuit of justice.

His dedication to duty, selflessness, and unwavering commitment to protecting his community and country will forever be remembered. Ferency's passion for his profession and his exemplary character will continue to inspire future generation of law enforcement officers

Project Never Broken will continue to honor and celebrate Greg's life and legacy. We will do our best to fill the huge void his absence creates by weaving his essence into everything we do.

We are determined to make something much bigger and positive come from an evil and senseless act. Thank you for your continued support of our mission in boldly supporting law enforcement through hope, help and healing.

Sincerely,

Shelley Klingerman

Executive Director

Our Mission

Boldly support law enforcement through hope, help and healing, while honoring the resiliency of humanity.

Behind the Name

Greg's dad, Mike Ferency, was in the 1st Battalion, 7th Artillery during Vietnam. The unit's motto was Nunquam Fractum, which translates to "Never Broken." The thought process was that if Vietnam didn't break Mike and Greg returned nine shots after being mortally shot, then we will be "never broken" by this evil act.

The three "stitches" between Nunquam and Fractum represent hope, help, and healing as stated in the mission. With that mission in mind, our ultimate goal is for our law enforcement officers and first responders to be never broken.

The "129" on the tag is Greg's badge number. The blue line represents the "thin blue line." Finally, the worn texture of the logo represents Greg's 30 years of service.

Surviving the Job: Stress, Trauma and Substance Abuse in Law Enforcement

In December '22, Project Never Broken brought in Giovanni Rocco to talk about his personal story of being a deep undercover FBI operative for 25+ years. Giovanni shared his own experience with dealing with the stress and trauma that comes with the job.

We hosted two sessions for law enforcement, first responders, military and their significant others. Additionally, we provided copies of Giovanni book, Giovanni's Ring, to each participant.

A public session was also held with the purpose of allowing the public to also get a perspective of the job that may not be as well-known and understood. We were able to connect with 50+ officers from the region, and over 120 members of the public.

Supporting Wives

Shortly after the program with Sgt. Sugrue, Project Never Broken was contacted by the wife of a local officer expressing her sincerest thanks for our organization serving as a resource to our officers.

As a result, we held meetings to better understand the challenges as a first responder spouse. In these meetings, we learned there's an urgent need for programming and support not only for the officers themselves, but their families as well.

Project Never Broken held the first program for the wives of first responders on June 14th, 2022.
